English translation of journal kept by Rev Ibraim Livius Lundebj show that "Ole B. Rindal" and "Halvor B. Rindal" were sponsors at a baptism of Maria (b. 1Feb 1882) and Lillie (b. 19Aug 1883) Larson at the Erik Jacobson home near Red Willow Lake (at Bible camp site). The date of the Baptism was 19 Aug 1883. Rev. Lundebj was pastor at Sheyenne Lutheran, and the Red Willow Lake congregation, amongst other churches he started.

1900 Federal Census of Equality Township of Red Lake County, Minnesota, done June 5 + 6, 1900 lists "Ole Rindal" on Line 63, Head of Household, born Mar 1852, 48 years old, married for 27yrs to "Torbjor" (Line 64), born Feb 1850, 50 years old, gave birth to 6 children and 6 still living; both born in Norway. Grave marker in Concordia Lutheran Church Cemetery has dates of 1852-1922.

Blanche Rendahl (Alfred's wife) sent a scanned image of a picture she has of the family when the "kids" were still in the household, estimating that the eldest, Gertrude (Gro), was in her middle to late teens. There was no Theodore captioned in the picture. For this reason, and for the reason that there is a Theodore in Halvor Reindal's line, I have deleted Theodore from Ole Bendik Rendahl's progeny. The picture appears to have been taken in a photo studio by a professional photographer.

1880 Federal Census shows first name as "Mathilda".

1900 Federal Census of Equality Township of Red Lake County, Minnesota, done June 5 + 6, 1900 lists "Ole Rindal" on Line 63, Head of Household, born Mar 1852, 48 years old, married for 27yrs to "Torbjor" (Line 64), born Feb 1850, 50 years old, gave birth to 6 children and 6 still living; both born in Norway. The kids living in the household with them are: "Ben"; "Mikel"; "Edwin"; "Ole"; "Gerty". "Dina", listed as granddaughter, also in household.

1920 Federal Census indicated that Tillie spoke only Norwegian and could not write. It is not clear whether she was unable to write due to disability; i.e., arthritis, or was not able to write English. The Census did indicate she could read, but does not distinguish in what language she could read.

1905 Minnesota State Census of Equality Township of Red Lake County, Minnesota, taken 03 Jun 1905 shows her (and Kinn family) living next store to Uncle Halvor Reindal.

The 1920 Federal Census lists Gordon Orlando CRITTENDEN as a "Hired Man" in the Kinn household. Gordon is a younger brother to Ethel CRITTENDEN (Ryan), mother of Hazel RYAN (Rendahl).

75th Anniversary book of Concordia Lutheran Church, Benedict, North Dakota has a picture on page 5 of "Mr. and Mrs. Christ Kinn".

Per phone conversation with Blanche Rendahl on 20 June, 2003, "Gertrude" is buried in Concordia Lutheran Church's cemetery. I did not get a picture of her gravestone when visiting the Norwegian cemetery (also a Swedish cemetery affiliated with Concordia), as I did not know at that time (7/2/1999) who she was in relation to me.

The following was written by Ardis Hoffer (Ted's daughter) in a personal email dated Tue, 23 Dec 2003 21:30:39 EST re:Gro Rendahl-Kinn and offspring (repeated in its entirety here):

I called Audrey last night and she wasn't a bit of help, but this is what I have come up with. Chris Kinn was married to Grandpa Tom's sister but I can never remember the name Julia mentioned. She was always referred to as "GRO" in my memory, but Audrey says that means "old woman" in Norwegian so maybe her name was Julia. Ha

Anyway, Chris Kinn had 3 boys and 1 girl that I can remember. Otto Kinn had 3 boys - Charles, Orlean, and Alvin. Ole Kinn had at least 6 kids, including Lucille, Wendall & Marvin. (can't remember the rest) There was also John Kinn but I know nothing about his family, and the girl was named Dena which is where the Kittleson clan comes in.

Dena Kinn married Henry Kittleson and they had 8 kids. I found out the number in an old Benedict history book. I can only come up with 7 kids but the book said 8 so I am missing one. They are Gladys Krebsbach (spelling is wrong) Tilda Peterson, Evelyn Erickson, Anna Olson, Elmo Kittleson, Art Kittleson, & Helen Bodecker (not sure of that spelling either) That would make Dena and my dad and your grandpa first cousins - right?

It has been so many years since I lived in that area that I just can't remember them. Charles Kinn and his wife were at my Dad's funeral last month. I didn't recognize him at first and we went to school together in the first through fifth grade. The Otto Kinn family was one of our closest neighbors on the farm.

1900 Federal Census of Township 147, Range 61, Griggs County, North Dakota, done June of that year, lists Tom Rindahl [sic], age 22, born in Minnesota, November 1878, occupation farmer. Wife, Betsy, age 16, born in Minnesota, February 1884. The census, taken in June of 1900, does not mention baby Ole T who was born in March.

1910 Federal Census of Township 149, Range 82, McLean County, North Dakota, done in April of that year, lists Tom Rindahl [sic], age 31, occupation farmer, married 10 years. Wife, Betsie, age 26, married 10 years, mother of 6 children, 5 living. Children: Ole, age 10, born in North Dakota; Hans, age 7, born in North Dakota; Elmer, age 5, born in North Dakota; Theodore, age 3, born in North Dakota; Josie, age 3 months. Andrew Radestosh (last name difficult to read), servant, age 43, born in Illinois; parents born in Norway.

According to World War I Registration Card (s/n 199), his birth date is 23 Sep, 1878, making him 39 as of 12 Sep 1918. He is listed as having blue eyes and DK Brown hair; Height-Tall; Build-Stout; Occupation-"Farmer & Stockman" employed by "Myself".

1920 Federal Census of Poplar Township (T149, R82), McLean County, North Dakota, done in January-February of that year, lists Tom Rendahl, age 41. Wife, Bettsie, age 35. Children: Ole, age 19; Hans, age 16; Elmer, age 13; Theodore, age 12; Josephine, age 9; Alfred, age 7. Agnes Mortensen, boarder, age 21, born in Minnesota; father born in Denmark, mother born in Minnesota. Occupation teacher.

BLM Records for surnames "Q-R" inclusive for McLean County, North Dakota show several possible listings for Tom. Three listings have a common spelling of "Tom Rendahl". The dates for these listings are 5/29/1913, 6/27/1910, 12/20/1926. These listings respectively are (Meridian, Twp, Range, Section, acreage, how acquired): 5/149N/82W/13/160/Homestead; 5/149N/82W/14/40/Cash sale; 5/150N/80W/28/80/Homestead. Another listing is for "Thom Rendahl", dated 1/4/1909 for Meridian 5, Twp 149N, Range 82W, Section 12, 40 acres, acquired by cash sale.

I have reprinted articles from Binford Times submitted to me by Allen Osmundson of Binford, North Dakota in fall 2002. First of three articles ran in 12/3/1907, with the second in 7/30/1908, and the third dated 11/18/1920. Tom, apparently from the 1907 article, moved from Binford to the "homestead near Max this state". The 1908 article has Tom visiting Binford "...for the sole purpose of getting a clean shave and a good haircut." Tom visited with "friends and relatives" in Binford for the past week according to the 1920 article.

Ted Rendahl (son) was the information source for the Certificate of Death that was filed with the State Health Department on 08 Oct 1938. The Certificate was granted 02 Nov 1938. Ted put down a birth date of 23 Sep 1877 for Tom, but that appears to be wrong in lieu of other sources that show a birth date of 23 Sep 1878.

A 10/13/1938 obituary in the Max Enterprise referred to Tom as "...well known and prominent farmer of Snake Creek Township south of town." This obituary was supplied by Allen Osmundson of Binford, North Dakota.
